

MEREDITH RUCKER

MEDIA DIRECTOR

Since 2016, Meredith has served as Social Media Coordinator and is currently Media Director at Contagious Church in Tampa, FL. Meredith is responsible for brand management through print and social media marketing, website and app maintenance, email marketing, in-service media and live stream production. In 2017, Meredith graduated from the Discipleship Training Institute and is now a licensed minister, ordained to the office of prophet.

BACKGROUND HISTORY SERVICE

Meredith took the lead in graphic design and marketing for the Fortune 500 desalination firm, Doosan Hydro Technology. She was later recruited by Wildfire Marketing Group, where she undertook corporate identity, web design, and social marketing projects for various clients, from start-ups to Fortune 500 giants.

After quickly learning the ropes at NV Advertising and moving from freelance graphic designer to Junior Creative Director, Meredith became well-versed in project management, social media, and responsive design. With 20 years of experience, she is currently at the helm of her own digital marketing company, currently serving clients locally in the Tampa Bay area and nationwide. Meredith's heart has always been to serve her community and the Kingdom.
